E-Safety Policy

1. Introduction

This policy has been written by colleagues from Human Resources (HR), the Education Improvement Service (EIS) and Shropshire Safeguarding Children Board (SSCB). It has been created to support school leaders in addressing whole-school issues in the use and application of new and emerging technologies across the school community. Shared ownership of this policy ensures both consistency of approach, and efficiency in relation to its ongoing review, update and/or revision to content.

E-safety is often defined as the safe and responsible use of technology. This includes the use of the internet and also other means of communication using electronic media (e.g. text messages, email, gaming devices etc.).

E-safety is not just about technology, it is also about people and their actions.

Technology provides unprecedented access to new educational opportunities; online collaboration, learning and communication. At the same time, it can provide the potential for staff and students to access material they shouldn't, or be treated by others inappropriately.

E-safety is part of the wider duty of care of all those who work in schools: equipping children and young people to stay safe online, both in school and outside, is integral to a school's Computing curriculum. It may also be embedded in Personal Social and Health Education (PSHE) and Sex and Relationship Education (SRE) and include how students should report incidents (e.g. The Child Exploitation and Online Protection (CEOP) button, via a trusted adult, Childline etc)

General advice and resources for schools on internet safety are available at:

<https://www.saferinternet.org.uk/>

In association with the appropriate Acceptable Use Policy Agreement (AUP), this policy forms part of the school's commitment to educate and protect all users when accessing digital technologies, both within and outside school. It should be read in conjunction with other relevant policies, such as the Child Protection/ Safeguarding, Behaviour and Anti-Bullying policies.

In England, schools are subject to an increased level of scrutiny of their online safety practices by Ofsted Inspectors during inspections. Since 2015 there have been additional duties under the Counter Terrorism and Security Act 2015, known as the 'Prevent duty', which require schools to ensure that children are safe from terrorist and extremist material on the internet, to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism.

Ofsted judges as 'outstanding', schools where 'students have an excellent understanding of how to stay safe online and of the dangers of inappropriate use of mobile technology and social networking sites'.

(Source: Ofsted School Inspection Handbook - October 2017)

This policy will be reviewed annually and/or more frequently in line with new developments in the use of the technologies, new threats to online safety or the level and/or nature of incidents reported.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all members of the school community, including staff, governors, students, volunteers, parents, carers, visitors {and community users/hirers}. This includes anyone who uses and/or has access to, personal devices and technologies whilst on school site and those who have access to, and are users of, school devices and technologies, both in and outside of the school.

The Education and Inspections Act 2006 empowers Headteachers to such extent as is reasonable, to regulate the behaviour of students when they are off the school site, and empowers members of staff to impose disciplinary penalties for inappropriate behaviour. This is pertinent to incidents of cyber-bullying or other online safety incidents covered by this policy, which may take place outside of the school but is linked to membership of the school.

The school will, where it becomes known, inform parents/carers of any such incidents of inappropriate online behaviour that takes place out of school.

The 2011 Education Act increased these powers with regard to the searching for electronic devices and the examination of any files or data (even where deleted), on such devices. In the case of both acts, action will be taken in line with the school's published Disciplinary Procedure and/or Behaviour Policy.

The school will keep a record of all staff and students who are granted Internet access. The record will be kept up-to-date and reflect changes or amendments such as a member of staff who has left the school or a student whose access has been withdrawn.

3. The Prevent Duty

As organisations seek to influence young people through the use of social media and the internet, schools and childcare providers need to be aware of the increased risk of online radicalisation and the risks posed by the online activity of extremist and terrorist groups.

The Prevent duty is the duty under the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015 on specified authorities (schools and childcare providers), in the exercise of their functions, to have due regard for the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism. The statutory guidance makes clear the need for schools to ensure that children are safe from terrorist and extremist material when accessing the internet in schools.

The general risks affecting children and young people may vary from area to area, and according to their age. Schools and childcare providers are required to identify risks within a given local context and identify children who may be at risk of radicalisation, and know what to do to support them.

The Prevent duty requires school monitoring and filtering systems to be fit for purpose. The school has a filtering system in place and its effectiveness is continuously monitored by the LA.

The Prevent duty means that all staff have a duty to be vigilant, and where necessary, will report concerns about internet use that includes, for example, the following:

- Internet searches for terms related to extremism
- Visits to extremist websites
- Use of social media to read or post extremist material
- Grooming of individuals

All staff should be aware of the following:

1. DfE Prevent duty
2. DfE briefing note on the use of social media to encourage travel to Syria and Iraq
3. The Channel Panel
4. Terrorism Act 2000 and the disclosure of information duty where it is believed or suspected that another person has committed an offence.

Practical advice and information for teachers, parents and school leaders on protecting children from extremism and radicalisation is available at:

<https://www.educateagainsthate.com/>

The Department for Education has dedicated a telephone helpline (020 7340 7264) to enable staff and governors to raise concerns relating to extremism directly. Concerns can also be raised by email to:

counter.extremism@education.gsi.gov.uk

Please note that the helpline is not intended for use in emergency situations, such as a child being at immediate risk of harm or a security incident, in which case the normal emergency procedures should be followed.

4. Governing Legislation

It is important to note that in general terms an action that is illegal if committed offline, is also illegal if committed online.

E-safety is seen as a 'whole school' issue, with specific responsibilities delegated as follows:

Head	Mr A J Parkhurst
E-safety Coordinator /LEAD TEACHER of COMPUTING	Ms B Jones
Network Manager/Technician	Shropshire Council

A full description of the responsibilities associated with these roles may be found in Appendix F.

7. School Staff, Governors and Volunteers

Acceptable Use Policy Agreements

Before being granted access to school devices and technologies, all members of the school community are required to read and sign an Acceptable Use Policy Agreement (AUP), appropriate to their role and status in school.

The AUP for staff has been created by HR. The AUP for staff may be used and/or adapted for any user, to include governors, volunteers and community users/tenants.

Acceptable Use Policy (AUP) for Staff

The AUP for staff can be found in Appendix A

All staff must read and sign the 'Acceptable Use Policy Agreement for Staff' (AUP) before using any school IT resource. Differing versions of this agreement may be used to match the personal and professional roles of staff members.

A copy of the staff AUP will be issued to all new members of staff during Induction. The school will also issue the AUP to staff, periodically, in response to the nature and/or volume of reported incidents, changes in legislation and emerging trends in online behaviour.

Access to online services and school devices will not be approved until new staff have signed and returned the AUP. Access may be suspended or restricted for serving staff who do not return an AUP issued on a periodic basis.

Staff are required to accept the general principles of acceptable use of school devices and technologies each time they log in to a school device.

E-safety and the AUP are included in the statutory induction for all new staff and forms part of the contract of employment.

Acceptable Use of Devices and Technologies: Staff

Any device provided by the school, to or for staff or students, is primarily intended to support the teaching and learning of students. Discretion and the highest professional standards of conduct are expected of staff using school devices for personal use.

Where remote access to the school network via a personal device is approved by the Headteacher, staff confirm their acceptance of the terms set out in the Acceptable Use Policy in relation to that device. Staff should seek clarification of any terms and conditions they do not understand.

Staff breaches of the AUP

Where a staff member is found to be in breach of the Staff AUP, the matter will be dealt with in accordance with appropriate school policies such as the Disciplinary procedure, and /or with reference to external agency guidance.

8. Students

Acceptable Use Policy (AUP) for Students (see Appendix B)

The AUP for students is signed in school. One is sent home to parents with a note on stating that if they don't return it they are agreeing to accept it. (see Appendix C)

Copies can be requested from the Computing coordinator if necessary.

The student AUP will form part of the first lesson of Computing for each year group.

Acceptable Use of Devices and Technologies: Students

Students are required to accept the general principles of acceptable use of school devices and technologies each time they log in to a school device or the school network.

Student breaches of the AUP

Where a student is found to have breached the AUP, this will be dealt with in line with the appropriate school policies, such as the Behaviour policy.

Examples of scenarios which may give rise to an E-safety concern are set out in Appendix I.

Remedial action and sanctions are at the discretion of school management. Outline guidance for teaching and leadership staff is set out in Appendix J.

9. Using non-School Equipment – ‘Bring Your Own Device/Bring Your Own Technology’ (BYOD/BYOT)

No one is allowed to do this.

10. Security and passwords

Passwords should be changed regularly and must not be shared. Staff must always ‘lock’ a device (e.g. a classroom PC) if they are going to leave it unattended.

NB. The picture ‘mute’ or picture ‘freeze’ option on a projector will allow an image to remain on the screen and also allow a PC to be ‘locked’.

All users should be aware that the ICT system is filtered and monitored.

11. Data storage

Only encrypted USB pens are to be used in school

12. Mobile phones, cameras and other devices

Camera mobile phones are not permitted in school. The only staff who are allowed school phones are the Headteacher and SBM.

Photos taken by the school are subject to the Data Protection Act.

13. Social Media and Networking

The expectations around the use of social media are set out in the relevant AUP.

14. Cyber bullying

All forms of bullying (including cyberbullying) should be handled as a community issue for the whole school. Every school must have measures in place to prevent all forms of bullying. These measures should be part of the school's behaviour policy which must be communicated to all pupils, school staff, governors and parents.

Cyber bullying is defined as 'the use of modern communication technologies to embarrass, humiliate, threaten or intimidate an individual in the attempt to gain power and control over them.'

Cyberbullying against staff

The DfE state that 'all employers, including employers of school staff in all settings, have statutory and common law duties to look after the physical and mental health of their employees. This includes seeking to protect staff from cyberbullying by pupils, parents and other members of staff, and supporting them if it happens'.

Cyberbullying: Advice for headteachers and school staff is non-statutory advice from the Department for Education for headteachers and all school staff on how to protect themselves from cyberbullying and how to tackle it if it happens.

https://www.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/374850/Cyberbullying_Advice_for_Headteachers_and_School_Staff_121114.pdf

Please refer to Appendix L for further guidance and support in dealing with instances of cyberbullying against staff and/or students.

15. Staff Reporting of E-safety Incidents and Concerns

The school takes the reports of incidents and concerns extremely seriously. Any subsequent action or remedy to be taken following the investigation of an incident or concern, will depend on its nature, situational and circumstantial factors.

All incidents that come to the attention of school staff should be notified to the Headteacher via the school reporting mechanism set out in Appendix K, or, where applicable, via the Whistleblowing Policy.

Any incident that raises child protection or wider safeguarding questions must also be communicated to the Designated Safeguarding Lead(s) immediately.

Incidents that are of a concern under the Prevent duty should be referred to the designated Safeguarding Lead, immediately.

Incidents which are not child protection issues but may require SLT intervention (e.g. cyberbullying) should be reported to SLT, immediately.

Examples of potential E-safety concerns may be found at Appendix I.

16. Staff training and updates

All staff have E-safety training included as part of their safeguarding induction to the school and receive regular training in safeguarding students. E-safety is included as part of this.

E-safety incidents and concerns are a standing item at staff briefings.

17. Communicating the E-safety Policy

Staff and the E-safety policy

- All staff will be given a copy of the E-safety Policy during statutory induction and its importance explained.
- An Acceptable Use Policy Agreement is signed before access to school devices and systems is approved and the agreement forms part of the contract of employment.
- Staff are made aware that internet traffic can be monitored and traced to the individual user, including on personal devices where network access has been granted. Because of this, discretion and professional conduct are essential at all times.

Introducing the E-safety policy to students

- The E-safety Policy/Acceptable Use Policy Agreement is/are posted in all classrooms, as appropriate, and its content referred to on a regular basis. The aim is to make the policy familiar and accessible to all students at all times.
- Students are made aware that network and Internet use is monitored.

Home-School Communication of E-safety information

- The school website provides information on E-safety and how the school can help to support and guide their child
- E-safety advice is included as a regular feature in newsletters and as part of the ongoing dialogue between home and school.
- The school holds E-safety events to brief parents and carers about E-safety developments and policies as part of events such as 'Safer Internet Day'/event.

Communications Act 2003

Sending by means of the Internet a message or other matter that is grossly offensive or of an indecent, obscene or menacing character; or sending a false message by means of or persistently making use of the Internet for the purpose of causing annoyance, inconvenience or needless anxiety is guilty of an offence, liable, on conviction, to imprisonment. This wording is important because an offence is complete as soon as the message has been sent: there is no need to prove any intent or purpose.

Malicious Communications Act 1988

It is an offence to send an indecent, offensive, or threatening letter, electronic communication or other article to another person.

Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000

It is an offence for any person to intentionally and without lawful authority, intercept any communication. Monitoring or keeping a record of any form of electronic communications is permitted, in order to:

- Establish the facts;
- Ascertain compliance with regulatory or self-regulatory practices or procedures;
- Demonstrate standards, which are or ought to be achieved by persons using the system;
- Investigate or detect unauthorised use of the communications system;
- Prevent or detect crime or in the interests of national security;
- Ensure the effective operation of the system.
- Monitoring but not recording is also permissible in order to:
 - Ascertain whether the communication is business or personal;
 - Protect or support help line staff.
- The school reserves the right to monitor its systems and communications in line with its rights under this Act.

Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988

It is an offence to copy all, or a substantial part of a copyright work. There are, however, certain limited user permissions, such as 'fair dealing', which means, under certain circumstances, permission is not needed to copy small amounts for non-commercial research or private study. The Act also provides for Moral Rights, whereby authors can sue if their name is not included in a work they wrote, or if the work has been amended in such a way as to impugn their reputation. Copyright covers materials in print and electronic form, and includes words, images, and sounds, moving images, TV broadcasts and other media (e.g. YouTube).

Telecommunications Act 1984

It is an offence to send a message or other matter that is grossly offensive or of an indecent, obscene or menacing character. It is also an offence to send a message that is intended to cause annoyance, inconvenience or needless anxiety to another that the sender knows to be false.

Criminal Justice & Public Order Act 1994

This defines a criminal offence of intentional harassment, which covers all forms of harassment, including sexual. A person is guilty of an offence if, with intent to cause a person harassment, alarm or distress, they:

- Use threatening, abusive or insulting words or behaviour, or disorderly behaviour; or
- Display any writing, sign or other visible representation, which is threatening, abusive or insulting, thereby causing that or another person harassment, alarm or distress.

Racial and Religious Hatred Act 2006

This Act makes it a criminal offence to threaten people because of their faith, or to stir up religious hatred by displaying, publishing or distributing written material which is threatening. Other laws already protect people from threats based on their race, nationality or ethnic background.

Protection from Harassment Act 1997

A person must not pursue a course of conduct, which amounts to harassment of another, and which he knows or ought to know amounts to harassment of the other. A person whose course of conduct causes another to fear, on at least two occasions, that violence will be used against him is guilty of an offence if he knows or ought to know that his course of conduct will cause the other so to fear, on each of those occasions.

Protection of Children Act 1978

It is an offence to take, permit to be taken, make, possess, show, distribute or advertise indecent images of children in the United Kingdom. A child for these purposes is anyone under the age of 18. Viewing an indecent image of a child on your computer means that you have made a digital image. An image of a child also covers pseudo-photographs (digitally collated or otherwise). A person convicted of such an offence may face up to 10 years in prison.

Sexual Offences Act 2003

A grooming offence is committed if you are over 18 and have communicated with a child under 16 at least twice (including by phone or using the Internet), it is an offence to meet them or travel to meet them anywhere in the world with the intention of committing a sexual offence. Causing a child under 16 to watch a sexual act is illegal, including looking at images such as videos, photos or webcams, for your own gratification, or that of others. It is also an offence for a person in a position of trust to engage in sexual activity with any person under 18, with whom they are in a position of trust. (Typically, teachers, social workers, health professionals, connections staff fall in this category of trust). Any person having sexual intercourse with a child under the age of 13 commits the offence of rape.

Public Order Act 1986

This Act makes it a criminal offence to stir up racial hatred by displaying, publishing or distributing written material which is threatening. Like the Racial and Religious Hatred Act 2006 it also makes the possession of inflammatory material with a view to releasing it, a criminal offence.

Obscene Publications Act 1959 and 1964

Publishing an "obscene" article is a criminal offence. Publishing includes electronic transmission.

Human Rights Act 1998

This does not deal with any particular issue specifically or any discrete subject area within the law. It is a type of "higher law", affecting all other laws. In the school context, human rights to be aware of include:

- The right to a fair trial
- The right to respect for private and family life, home and correspondence

- Freedom of thought, conscience and religion
- Freedom of expression
- Freedom of assembly
- Prohibition of discrimination
- The right to education

These rights are not absolute. The school is obliged to respect these rights and freedoms, balancing them against those rights, duties and obligations, which arise from other relevant legislation.

The Education and Inspections Act 2006

Empowers Headteachers, to such extent as is reasonable, to regulate the behaviour of students / pupils when they are off the school site and empowers members of staff to impose disciplinary penalties for inappropriate behaviour.

The Education and Inspections Act 2011

Extended the powers included in the 2006 Act and gave permission for Headteachers (and nominated staff) to search for electronic devices. It also provides powers to search for data on those devices and to delete data.

The Protection of Freedoms Act 2012

Requires schools to seek permission from a parent / carer to use Biometric systems.

The School Information Regulations 2012

Requires schools to publish certain information on its website:
<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/what-maintained-schools-must-publish-online>

Serious Crime Act 2015

Introduced the new offence of sexual communication with a child. Also created new offences and orders around gang crime (including Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE)).

Appendix H: E-Safety Incident Reporting Log

Date	Time	Incident	Action Taken		Incident Reported By	Signature
			What?	By Whom?

Appendix I: Examples of potential E-safety concerns (Students)

The following are provided by way of guidance and are in no way limiting or exhaustive. You should seek advice from the E-safety coordinator if you are unsure about what might constitute a concern.

Inappropriate material accessed on school computers

Due to the international scale and linked nature of Internet content, it is not possible to guarantee that unsuitable material will never appear on a computer even when filtering is in place and users abide by the rules.

Students are taught that they are not at fault if they see or come across something online that they find worrying or upsetting and are encouraged to alert staff to any inappropriate content. The staff member should report the incident to the E-safety Co-ordinator who will log the problem and liaise with the Network Manager to make any necessary adjustment to filter settings.

Abusive messages on school computers

Students who receive abusive messages over school systems will be supported, and advised not to delete messages. The E-safety Co-ordinator will be informed and a formal process of investigation initiated.

Parent/Carer/Guardian reports of cyber bullying

Parents, carers and guardians may become aware that their child is concerned or upset by bullying, originating in the school but continuing via electronic means. Parents and carers should know that the school encourages them and/or students to approach them for help, either via a staff member or directly to the Head. Such incidents will be investigated and dealt with in accordance with the school/academy Behaviour/Bullying policy.

Student disclosure of concerns or abuse

All staff receive Safeguarding and E-safety training as part of their induction, and thereafter on a regular basis. Where a student discloses a concern to a member of school staff, this is passed on to the Designated Safeguarding Lead and, where appropriate, the E-safety Coordinator.

Student reporting outside school

Students are taught that if something worries them, or if they think a situation is getting out of hand, that they should share this with a trusted adult such as their parents, carers, guardians or school staff.

Allegations against staff

Allegations involving staff should ordinarily be reported to the Headteacher or through the Whistleblowing Policy. If the allegation is one of abuse then it should be handled in line with the statutory DfE guidance: 'Dealing with allegations of abuse against teachers and other staff'. If necessary local authority's LADO should be informed.

Evidence of incidents must be preserved and retained and where necessary, the LADO informed.

The curriculum will cover how students should report incidents (e.g. CEOP button, trusted adult, Childline)

Appendix J: How to Manage Student Breaches of the Acceptable Use Policy

Where a student is found to have breached the AUP, this will be dealt with in line with the appropriate school policies, such as the Behaviour policy.

Remedial action relating to potential sanctions is at the discretion of school management as suggested as below.

The following are provided as exemplification only, and should be amended and/or confirmed by the school, as appropriate:

- Use of non-educational sites during lessons
- Unauthorised use of email

Other safeguarding actions

If inappropriate web material is accessed:

Other safeguarding actions:

1. Secure and preserve any evidence
2. Inform the sender's e-mail service provider if a system other than the school system is used.

Pupils are also informed that sanctions can be applied to e-safety incidents that take place out of school, if they are related to school or any member of its community.

Schools are likely to involve external support agencies as part of these investigations e.g. an ICT technical support service to investigate equipment and collect data evidence and/or the Local Authority Human Resources team.

Preventing and tackling bullying: Advice for headteachers, staff and governing bodies

This document has been produced by the Department for Education to help schools take action to prevent and respond to bullying as part of their overall behaviour policy. It outlines, in one place, the Government's approach to bullying, legal obligations and the powers schools have to tackle bullying, and the principles which underpin the most effective anti-bullying strategies in schools. It also lists further resources through which school staff can access specialist information on the specific issues that they face. This includes cyberbullying.
