Explore ...

- Richard Turpin write some facts in your book.
- How can we prevent crime?
- Imagine you are in charge of the country. Can you write some laws? Include what the punishment would be for breaking the law.

2 raffle tickets:

Mathematical skills:

- Draw a plan drawing of the inside of a prison – what is the perimeter of each cell?
- Create a map for a prisoner trying to escape your prison – how can they get out?

1 raffle ticket:

3 raffle tickets:

Develop your creativity:

- Make a model of a prison or your ٠ favourite punishment.
- Write an acoustic poem for crime • or punishment.

This half term's topic is:

'Crime and punishment'

Choose projects to achieve your Raffle tickets

You can add with your own ideas too! Tick off what you have completed to achieve your points.

2 raffle tickets

Research/historical skills:

- Find out what life is like in a • prison today- what they eat, do etc. Can you compare it to another period in time?
- Make a wanted poster for a famous real or fictional criminal.
- Find out the work of the police.